

UNVEILING THE STORIES OF KAMPUNG NOMBOR

STORIES, HERITAGE & MEMORIES

FRIDAY 19TH JUNE 2026, 9:00AM – 1:00PM

GUEST SPEAKER: AIMAN FARHAH

Kampung Nombor is one of the historic Malay settlements in Satok, Kuching, Sarawak, renowned for its rich cultural heritage, strong community spirit, and traditional way of life. Located near the Sarawak River, the village has long been home to generations of local families whose livelihoods were closely connected to fishing, trade, and river-based activities.

- ✓ Introduction to Kampung Nombor's history and heritage
- ✓ Cultural insights and local stories
- ✓ Guided tour experience
- ✓ Interactive Q&A session
- ✓ Networking and community engagement
- ✓ Refreshment stop

Gathering Point:
IN FRONT OF
KAFE PONDOK ANIS
(BESIDE KUCHING CITY OLD MOSQUE)

Scan to register

The tour will be led by Aiman Farhah, an experienced and licensed tour guide with 9 years of experience in the tourism industry, and also a member of Sarawak Tourist Guide Association. She is a proud resident of Kampung Nombor. Drawing from both professional expertise and personal connections to the village, Aiman Farhah will guide participants around Kampung Nombor while sharing stories, local insights, and cultural knowledge passed down through generations.

email: sarawakheritagesociety@gmail.com
whatsapp: +6018 780 2006

Organised by: In collaboration with:

